

Subject: General History

Phase: Middle School

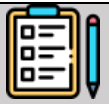

Welcome to the History Super Curriculum. Below you will find a whole host of exciting things to do to develop your understanding and boost your knowledge of History. We hope you enjoy doing this work. You might want to create a workbook, journal or presentation of the things you do. You will earn reward points if you can show your teacher.

READ 	WATCH
Go your local library and choose a book from the History section that inspires you or you are enthusiastic about. You could write down on stars or present what your favourites facts are and share them with parents and families. You could even bring them to school and share them with your class. Check out BBC History website for a range of inspiring historical events. Have a look at the different categories of history books that inspires you and purchase one from Amazon, Waterstones or a shop of your choice. BBC Bitesize has lots of great areas of History to read about.	Watch the BBC TV series 'Digging for Britain' to find out the amazing artefacts found in Britain. Watch the Ted Talks animated clips to find out about quirky information from history. Watch some different 'Horrible Histories' shows that interest you. Watch the 'Indiana Jones' or 'Night at the Museum' BBC Teach has lots of great short clips related to History BBC teach History - YouTube

LISTEN

DO

Listen to some of the ‘Horrible History Podcasts’

Listen to some of the ‘Top Ten History Audio Books for Kids’

Listen to BBC’s podcast Homeschool History. Fun history lessons for all the family, presented by Horrible Histories' Greg Jenner.

Visit the RAMM Museum in Exeter. Visit the Torquay Museum. Visit the Newton Abbot Museum. Visit The Box in Plymouth.

Go Exeter and take the self-guided tour of Exeter’s City Wall where The oldest parts of the wall are almost 2000 years old and it has been the site of many important historical events.

When you go to one of the museums, pick your top 5 most significant objects in the collection, draw a picture and explain why each object is so important.

Explore the collections at the British Museum here British Museum – pick your top 6 most significant objects in the collection and explain why each object is so important.

Research a famous person from the past or present. Write a diary entry, information leaflet, biography or write questions you would like to ask them.