

ABC Awards. Level 1 Certificate in the Introduction to the Hospitality Industry (50083971)

This qualification offers learners a practical introduction to the hospitality and catering industry. This industry is a large part of our local economy and this course can provide the skills to support further training within 6th form and future employment.

This qualification consist of six units which will be studied over 2 years

| Unit Number | Unit name | What does the unit offer? | Level | Credit value |
|-------------|--|--|-------|--------------|
| M/502/4894 | Introduction to the Hospitality Industry | This unit gives learners an introduction to the hospitality industry and related career opportunities including: food preparation and cooking, food and drinks services, accommodation services and guest services | 1 | 2 |
| J/502/4898 | Customer Service in the Hospitality Industry | The unit aims to provide learners with a basic understanding of the importance of good customer service within the hospitality industry | 1 | 3 |
| T/502/5075 | Using kitchen equipment | Learners will be able to give examples of large and small kitchen equipment and describe how they are used and the safety requirements for using them. They will be able to use different kitchen equipment for routine tasks and follow correct procedures when cleaning equipment | 1 | 1 |
| K/502/4957 | Food Service | The unit will give learners an introduction to serving food safely and hygienically and develop skills required to work in a food service area within the hospitality industry | 1 | 3 |
| L/502/5051 | Preparing and Serving Drinks | This unit will give learners an introduction to preparing and serving drinks in the hospitality industry. They will be able to identify different types of drink and the correct equipment for preparing and serving them. They will also be required to set up and close down service areas | 1 | 3 |
| K/502/5042 | Basic Food Preparation and Cooking | This unit gives learners an introduction to preparing and cooking food using wet and dry methods of cooking | 1 | 3 |